CRUISE HIGHLIGHTS

DISCOVER the Aegean on this journey through the ages aboard the sleek Emerald Azzurra from Izmir to Athens

TRACE the historic missionary journeys of St. Paul to places where he visited, lived, and preached, such as an expert-guided tour of Philippi, where he founded Europe's first Christian church

WALK in the footsteps of Homer's heroes on an expert-led tour of UNESCO-listed Troy, envisioning battles of the legendary Trojan War

CELEBRATE Orthodox Easter at an optional dawn service in Kavala before a guided tour of Philippi, where you'll trace the path of St. Paul and witness his legacy in its early Christian ruins

UNCOVER the secrets of the enigmatic Sanctuary of the Great Gods on Samothraki, where ancient kings and influential figures were initiated into a mysterious cult

STEP behind the scenes at the UNESCO-listed Museum of Royal Tombs in Aigai, the millennia-old capital of Macedon, featuring the tomb of King Philip II, father of Alexander the Great

ASCEND to the cloud-high Eastern Orthodox monasteries of Meteora, cinematic sanctuaries perched atop towering rock pillars, and view their sacred relics and frescoes

UNRAVEL the Greek myths and Byzantine history of Skyros as you explore the Greek island's imposing Venetian castle with a local scholar, hearing tales of Achilles and Theseus

IMMERSE yourself in the Byzantine heritage of Amorgos, exploring the 11th-century clifftop Monastery of Hozoviotissa and its miraculous icon of the Virgin Mary that has attracted pilgrims for 1,000 years

TRAVELING WITH YOU

The Rev. Dr. Gregory W. McGonigle was appointed Dean of Religious Life and University Chaplain at Emory in 2019. His duties are to support all religious and philosophical life at the university, to lead the team in the university's Office of Spiritual and Religious Life, to provide pastoral care, and to promote interfaith engagement initiatives. Before Emory, Dean McGonigle served as the University Chaplain of Tufts University, the first multifaith Director of the Office of Religious and Spiritual Life at Oberlin College, and a campus minister at the University of California, Davis. He received his B.A. magna cum laude from Brown University in Religious Studies, focused on South Asian religions. He holds an MDiv degree from Harvard University focused on American religious history and a DMin from Boston University School of Theology.

ALSO TRAVELING WITH YOU

Keith Christiansen is Curator Emeritus, formerly the John Pope-Hennessy Chairman of the Department of European Paintings at The Metropolitan Museum of Art. He began work at The Met in 1977, and, during his 44 years there, organized numerous exhibitions on Renaissance and Baroque painting. He has written widely on Italian art and is the recipient of several awards. Raised in Seattle, Washington, and Concord, California, he attended the University of California campuses at Santa Cruz and Los Angeles and received his Ph.D. from Harvard University.

Denis Feeney is the Giger Professor of Latin and Professor of Classics, Emeritus, at Princeton University, where he taught classes and published on Latin literature and Roman culture more broadly, focusing on Roman religion and time. He retired in 2022 after 22 years of distinguished teaching and service. In addition to articles on Latin literature (particularly on his favorite Latin poets, Catullus, Virgil, Horace, and Ovid), Professor Feeney has written four books: The Gods in Epic (Oxford, 1991), Literature and Religion at Rome (Cambridge, 1998), Caesar's Calendar (California, 2007), and Beyond Greek: The Beginnings of Latin Literature (Harvard, 2016).

Timothy Harrison is Director of the Institute for the Study of Ancient Cultures, West Asia & North Africa (ISAC), University of Chicago, and professor in the Department of Near Eastern Languages and Civilizations. Harrison's research focuses on the rise of early social complexity in the ancient Near East. He has more than 35 years of experience conducting field research, primarily around the Eastern Mediterranean littoral, including in Turkey. He earned a Ph.D. and A.M. from the University of Chicago's Department of Near Eastern Languages and Civilizations and a B.A. from Wheaton College.

EMORY UNIVERSITY

Dear Emory Alumni, Family, and Friends,

In April 2025, please join Emory on an inspirational Aegean odyssey aboard the acclaimed new Emerald Azzurra. Cruise Homer's "wine-dark sea," tracing the apostle Paul's sacred journeys that would forever change history. As he made his quest to bring Jesus's teachings to the world in the first century A.D., there was no better place to begin than the Aegean region. This was the melting pot from which Western Civilization would be forged, where new ideas could spread like wildfire.

As you experience this crossroads of cultures where St. Paul made his mark, experts will take you behind the scenes of excellent museums, sacred sanctuaries, Byzantine monasteries, and UNESCO-listed archaeological sites. Beyond the region's Greek heritage, witness how the cultures of ancient Macedonians, Romans, Jews, Byzantines, Venetians, and Ottomans shaped Western art, culture, history, and religion.

On this special Easter journey, join local scholars in places St. Paul visited, lived, and preached, including Philippi, the Greek city where Paul established Europe's first Christian church. Celebrate Easter 2025 with an authentic local tradition, attending a dawn service at an Orthodox church in Kavala, Greece, where St. Paul first set foot in Europe.

Sail from the Greco-Roman cities of Ephesus and legendary Troy to Samothraki, Skyros, and Amorgos, pristine Greek islands rich in history. In Thessaloniki, travel to Aigai for an exclusive look at the royal tombs, including the solid-gold casket of King Phillip II, and witness the gravity-defying monasteries at Meteora, perched 1,000 feet atop soaring sandstone pillars.

Travel with the guidance of The Rev. Dr. Gregory W. McGonigle, Emory's Dean of Religious Life and University Chaplain, whose expertise will help you navigate the complexities of faith in this region. Gain a well-rounded perspective on the Aegean through additional insights from world-renowned lecturers: Princeton University Professor Emeritus Denis Feeney, an expert on classical literature; Timothy Harrison, director of the Institute for the Study of Ancient Cultures (ISAC); and Museum Travel Alliance lecturer Keith Christiansen, a highly regarded European paintings curator emeritus from The Metropolitan Museum of Art.

Turkey to Greece

Heroes, Saints & Emperors Aboard Emerald Azzurra

April 16 – 26, 2025

Ephesus, Turkey

Stand before Ephesus's awe-inspiring Roman edifices, including the Library of Celsus, the Temple of Hadrian, and a 25,000-seat amphitheater. Enjoy an exclusive look at archaeologists restoring "terrace houses," the city's luxurious, ancient residential villas, with their colorful mosaics and frescoes.

Climb the hill to the domed Basilica of St. John, the final resting place of Jesus's beloved disciple, who spent his last years in Ephesus preaching the Gospel. After lunch, all participants will transfer to Izmir and the awaiting Emerald Azzurra.

SATURDAY, APRIL 19: MORNING AT SEA / KEPEZ / TROY

From the port of Kepez, transfer to Troy, the city immortalized by Homer's epic poem The Iliad. Trace the paths of Heinrich Schliemann, the famous German archaeologist, who used Homer's narrative as his guide when he excavated Troy in the late 19th century.

With your expert guide, observe how Troy's fortifications vary through its many historical periods, including some that date to the Bronze Age. Take a closer look at Trojan artifacts on a guided tour of the strikingly modern Museum of Troy. In the late afternoon, sail north to the Greek port of Kavala. B,L,D

Extend the adventure with an optional Istanbul prelude, April 14-17, 2025. More details and pricing will be shared with confirmed participants.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 16: DEPARTURE

Depart on an overnight flight to Izmir, Turkey.

THURSDAY, APRIL 17: IZMIR, TURKEY

Upon arrival in Izmir, transfer to the hotel for check-in. Later, gather for a welcome cocktail reception at the hotel. R

FRIDAY, APRIL 18: IZMIR / SMYRNA OR EPHEBUS / EMBARK EMERALD AZZURRA

Before boarding the ship in the late afternoon, choose between excursions to Izmir or Ephesus. In Izmir, explore the Izmir Archaeological and Ethnography Museum, with its impressive collection of ancient Greek and Roman artifacts, including statues, pottery, and ornate sarcophagi. Then visit the fourth-century B.C. ruins of the Smyrna Agora, one of the world's largest ancient marketplaces, in a city founded by Alexander the Great, according to legend.

Alternatively, join an expert guide in Ephesus, whose history spans classical Greece, the Roman Empire, and early Christianity. St. Paul, who spread the Gospel in Ephesus for three years (circa 53-56 A.D.), addressed the city's Christian community in his famous Epistle to the Ephesians.

Museum of Troy, Turkey

SUNDAY, APRIL 20: KAVALA, GREECE / PHILIPPI

As Emerald Azzurra arrives in Kavala early on Easter morning, you may choose to celebrate this sacred holiday like a local: Attend a profoundly moving Easter dawn service at an Orthodox church in this city where St. Paul first set foot in Europe.

After breakfast, travel to nearby Philippi, an archaeological wonderland that spans the Hellenistic, Roman, and Byzantine eras. Walk through the ancient theater and grand Roman forum. Amid the remains of the fourth-century A.D. church dedicated to St. Paul, hear how he baptized Lydia, a wealthy cloth merchant, in a nearby river—the first recorded Christian convert on the continent. After time for lunch at leisure in Kavala, set sail this evening for Samothraki. B,D

MONDAY, APRIL 21: SAMOTHRAKI

An island long shrouded in mystery, Samothraki was once home to the Cabeiri cult, whose secret rites and initiation ceremonies drew the powerful and influential from across the ancient world. Your expert guide will lead you through the Sanctuary of the Great Gods, sharing tales of figures who once passed through its gates. Notably, Philip II met his future queen, Olympias, here during their initiation.

Near the ancient city of Paleopoli, archaeologists have uncovered what may be one of the world's oldest churches, built to commemorate Paul's visit in 50 A.D. and the arrival of Christianity in Europe. Make your way to the modern monument near the site, which honors this turning point in the spiritual history of the West. Before the ship sails, you may choose to have lunch on board or a meal at leisure ashore. B,L,D

TUESDAY, APRIL 22: THESSALONIKI / VERGINA / VERIA

Arrive in Thessaloniki, Greece's second-largest city, with Greek, Roman, Byzantine, and Ottoman roots. Transfer to Vergina and the ruins of Aigai, the ancient capital of Macedon. Join experts behind the scenes at the subterranean, UNESCO-listed Museum of the Royal Tombs and its collections of precious gold jewelry, weapons, furniture, and frescoes unearthed from the tombs of the Macedonian royal family. The showstopper is Philip II's splendid golden larnax, which held his remains.

After lunch, you have a choice between two excursions. You may join an expert along the winding streets of Thessaloniki's Ano Poli (Upper Town), with its UNESCO-listed Byzantine Walls. Visit the fifth-century A.D. Church of Saint Demetrius, one of Greece's largest churches, then join an expert for a guided tour of the Museum of Byzantine Culture, whose rare textiles, glasswork, and funerary paintings offer a glimpse into the lives of the empire's elite.

The more intrepid may opt to travel to Veria, an ancient city where St. Paul once preached. Enjoy a hike up to the 14th-century Byzantine Monastery of Timios Prodromos. Afterwards, all travelers will return to Emerald Azzurra in the port of Thessaloniki. B,L,D

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 23: VOLOS / MAKRINITSA OR KALABAKA / METEORA

As Emerald Azzurra glides across the Pagasetic Gulf and arrives in the port city of Volos, trace the mythical voyage of Jason and his Argonauts on their quest for the Golden Fleece. Volos was originally the ancient city of Pagasae, where Jason and the Argonauts set sail.

Visit the Volos Archaeological Museum, where ancient stories come to life through intricately painted stelae dating from the third century B.C. Then choose between two expert-led excursions. You may ascend to the heavenly heights of Makrinitza atop Mount Pelion, the mythical homeland of the half-man, half-horse Centaurs. At the top, stroll along honeysuckle-scented cobblestone paths past grand mansions and enjoy lunch at leisure.

A Greek Orthodox Easter Service

Alternatively, prepare for a journey to a gravity-defying realm of spiritual wonder at Meteora, an important Byzantine center. Here, colossal stone pillars rise from the earth like the fingers of a giant, each crowned by a monastery that appears to float in the sky. Marvel at the courage of the monks who built these cloud-high Eastern Orthodox monasteries over 500 years, starting in the 14th century.

After the steep ascent, arrive first at the Great Meteoron Monastery, whose museum houses treasures beyond compare—ancient manuscripts, soul-stirring icons, and vestments threaded with silver and pearls. As you explore the six remaining cliff-top monasteries, peruse their collections of religious artifacts, frescoes, icons, and libraries. Return to Volos for a late afternoon sail. B,L,D

THURSDAY, APRIL 24: SKYROS / AFTERNOON AT SEA

Welcome to Skyros, the mythical birthplace of Achilles's son Neoptolemus, who played a key role in the fall of Troy. Discover its seaside villages and distinctly Cycladic cube-shaped houses, then stop for a guided look at the Archaeological Museum of Skyros. Visit the Faltaits Museum, a lovingly preserved historic Skyrian house filled with rare ceramics and other local folkloric artifacts. Stroll to the Byzantine Monastery of St. George, a pilgrimage site for more than a thousand years. As you enter the 17th-century chapel, the glow of candlelight will reveal vividly colorful 18th-century frescoes.

Perched atop a cliff overlooking the main town, the island's ancient citadel will truly capture your imagination. It was here that King Lycomedes held court, where Theseus drew his last breath, and where Achilles donned women's clothing to avoid the call to war. Before you bid farewell to Skyros in the mid-afternoon, enjoy lunch on the ship or at leisure in a local taverna ashore. B,L,D

FRIDAY, APRIL 25: AMORGOS

Step ashore on Amorgos, a rugged island steeped in myth and history. Inhabited since prehistoric times, Amorgos flourished during the Cycladic, Hellenistic, and Roman periods before becoming an important monastic center during the Byzantine era. Choose to return to the ship or opt to take lunch ashore.

This afternoon, take a look at a magnificent treasure the Byzantines left behind. Accompany an expert guide up to the 11th-century Monastery of Hozoviotissa, a stark white structure atop precipitous cliffs facing out to sea. For more than a thousand years, pilgrims have traveled here to venerate its miraculous icon of the Virgin Mary. Return to Emerald Azzurra, where you'll attend the captain's farewell reception and dinner this evening as the ship sails to Piraeus. B,L,R,D

SATURDAY, APRIL 26: PIRAEUS / DISEMBARK / ATHENS / RETURN

Disembark in Piraeus this morning and transfer to the Athens airport for your flights home. B
